Master MEEF (Teaching, Education and Courses)

The MEEF mention prepares students for educational examinations for private and public middle and high schools (general or professional sectors). Students acquire knowledge in language, literature, civilisation and linguistics as well as in pedagogy as they are placed in a professional environment through the M2.

During the second year, they can choose one of these two paths :

- M2 SOPA : observation and accompanied practice internship
- M2C : the student has a contract and is in charge of pupils

This Master's degree prepares students for educational examinations in German, English, Arabic, Chinese and Spanish.

Location : Campus Berges du Rhône, Porte des Alpes et INSPE

Prerequisite : BAC+3

Period : 2 years

Master 2 Didactics of foreign languages and ICTE (information and communication technologies for education)

The objective of the Didactics of foreign languages and ICTE course is to prepare students for the different situations of teaching foreign languages (initial training, continuing education, distance learning, development of teaching materials). It provides them the tools to face the major changes that the teaching of foreign languages is currently experiencing with the development and the use of information and communication technologies (ICT).

The aim is to give them the means to be real players in their role as language teachers (face-to-face, remotely or in hybrid systems) by establishing a synergy between the practice of teaching modern languages and reflection based on the achievements of research in didactics.

Attention : this course is only available in M2. Students must have a M1 to attend this course.

Location : Campus Berges du Rhône

Prerequisite : BAC+4

Period : 1 year
